EASLEY REAPPOINTS MONTGOMERY TO ARCHITECTURE BOARD

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Kevin G. Montgomery of Durham to the North Carolina Board of Architecture.

Montgomery has been a member of the board since 1997. He has served as secretary, treasurer, vice president and president of the board. He is the director of architecture at O'Brien Atkins Associates PA, a design services firm in Research Triangle Park. Montgomery served on the board of directors for the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards. He received his bachelor's degree in architecture from Cornell University and is a registered architect in New York and North Carolina.

The board works to ensure competence and professionalism among practicing architects in the state. There are seven members on the board, each serving a 5-year term. The governor appoints all members.
